First Reading: Hebrews 13.1-8,15,16

A reading from Epistle to the Hebrews

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it. Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are ill-treated as if you yourselves were suffering.

Marriage should be honoured by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral. Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said,

‘Never will I leave you;
never will I forsake you.’
So we say with confidence,

The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.

What can mere mortals do to me?’

Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Receiving Communion

- You are invited to come up to the Communion Rail to receive Communion
- You will be offered a wafer dipped in wine
- If you would like to only receive the wafer please hold out one hand
- For a Blessing keep your hands down
- If you need to, or would prefer to, receive at your pew, please raise your hand and a Warden will make sure you receive it there

Gospel Reading: Luke 14.1,7-14

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you O Lord

One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully

When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honour at the table, he told them this parable: 'When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honour, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, "Give this person your seat." Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, "Friend, move up to a better place." Then you will be honoured in the presence of all the other guests. For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

Then Jesus said to his host, 'When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbours; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you O Christ.

The Collect

O God, you declare your almighty Power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all mercy,
we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace:
by our communion
keep us firm
on the foundation of the gospel
and preserve us from all sin;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

News & Information

Rev Paul's Institution & Induction at St Leonard's Warmingham is this Wednesday 31 August at 7pm. Space is limited at the service and Paul will have already spoken to those who asked him for a space a few weeks ago. Unfortunately, due to the lack of signal at the church, the service can't be live-streamed. Please keep Paul and his family in your prayers.

For information: we have been informed that LILA Cables will be working outside St Mary's from Monday 22 August through to Friday 2 September. They have assured us that access to the church should not be affected.

Enabling all God's People: A service to celebrate our different abilities, led by the Bishop of Birkenhead, with guest speaker Darius Traves. The Diocesan Engagement and Inclusion Officer, the Revd Vanessa Layfield, invites you to come along to the service which takes place on 10 September at 2pm at St Michael's and All Angels', Bramhall. A big thank you to everyone who helped with the hall cleaning on Tuesday morning. A fantastic effort - a long time since it was done that thoroughly! Also, thanks to those who also cleaned St Mary's afterwards.

Sunday refreshments - please if anyone can offer their services for Mid October onwards for Tea and Coffee after Service, please add your name to the Rota in the Church Hall – Many thanks

July Foodbank Update: St Paul's Pantry provided 231 people with crisis food parcels which is 100 households. Most people are experiencing hardship in the current climate, we are in need of long life food items are still the main priority, currently we are continuously short of items such as tinned meat, tinned vegetables, tinned puddings, UHT milk, cereal, jam, cooking sauces, rice, and pasta. Thank you!
